PEANUTS IN CUMBERLAND

Acetylene Gas Popular as a Light in Cartersville.

in Cartersville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CARTERSVILLE, VA., April 13.—One or two farmers of this section are experimenting with peanut ruising this year. In some places the land s well adapted to the cultivation of the "goobers," though no great effort has ever been made to raise them. Look out for the peanut yield from Cumberland. Two young ladles have gone into the business.

peanut yield from Cumberland. Two young ladles have gone into the business and the crop must be a success.

Recently acctylene gas lights have been put in Mr. S. L. Kle's store, hotel and dwelling house, and they have given entire satisfaction. The lights are remarkably good, and several other residents are speaking of having them put in.

WHO ARE THE MEN?

In The Times-Dispatch of last Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday were published the "cut-up" pletures of two prominent men of Richmond. The pictures were cut into small pieces and mixed together and about an equal number of the pieces were published on each of the three days. Some of the capital letters which spell their names are published to-day and the rest of them will be published to-morrow, scattered among the Want Ads. in brackets, thus (M), Cut. out the pieces, paste them together so as to form the portraits of the two gentlemen; look for the capital letters, which spell their names, cut out the Ads containing the letters and paste them in proper order to spell the two names and then send the complete puzzle to The Times-Dispatch. There will be five prizes, The first will be five dollars in gold; the second and third, two tickets each to the Academy next week and the third and fourth two tickets each to the Bijon next week.

All replies must be in The Times-Dispatch office by next Saturday, at noon, and the winners will be announced in The Times-Dispatch next Sunday.

All correct answers will be placed in a basket and the winners drawn out by a disinterested person, blindfolded. The first answer drawn out will get the first prize, thus, in regular order until the five prizes be decided,
